

FINAL TERMS

The Final Terms in respect of each Tranche of Notes will be completed to reflect the particular terms of the relevant Notes and their issue. Text in this section appearing in italics does not form part of the form of the Final Terms but denotes directions for completing the Final Terms.

PROHIBITION OF SALES TO UK RETAIL INVESTORS – The Notes are not intended to be offered, sold or otherwise made available to and should not be offered, sold or otherwise made available to any retail investor in the United Kingdom ("UK"). For these purposes, a retail investor means a person who is one (or more) of: (i) a retail client, as defined in point (8) of Article 2 of Regulation (EU) No 2017/565 as it forms part of domestic law by virtue of the European Union (Withdrawal) Act 2018 ("EUWA"); (ii) a customer within the meaning of the provisions of the FSMA and any rules or regulations made under the FSMA to implement Directive (EU) 2016/97, where that customer would not qualify as a professional client, as defined in point (8) of Article 2(1) of Regulation (EU) No 600/2014 as it forms part of domestic law by virtue of the EUWA; or (iii) not a qualified investor as defined in Article 2 of Regulation (EU) 2017/1129 as it forms part of domestic law by virtue of the EUWA. Consequently, no key information document required by Regulation (EU) No 1286/2014 as it forms part of domestic law by virtue of the EUWA (the "UK PRIIPs Regulation") for offering or selling the Notes or otherwise making them available to retail investors in the UK has been prepared and therefore offering or selling the Notes or otherwise making them available to any retail investor in the UK may be unlawful under the UK PRIIPs Regulation.

MIFID II product governance / Retail investors, professional investors and ECPs – Solely for the purposes of the manufacturer's product approval process, the target market assessment in respect of the Notes has led to the conclusion that: (i) the target market for the Notes is eligible counterparties, professional clients and retail clients, each as defined in Directive 2014/65/EU (as amended, "MiFID II"); and (ii) all channels for distribution to eligible counterparties, professional and retail clients are appropriate; Any person subsequently offering, selling or recommending the Notes (a "distributor") should take into consideration the manufacturer's target market assessment; however, a distributor subject to MiFID II is responsible for undertaking its own target market assessment in respect of the Notes (by either adopting or refining the manufacturer's target market assessment) and determining appropriate distribution channels, subject to the distributor's suitability and appropriateness obligations under MiFID II, as applicable.

The Issuer is subject to the following key risks:

(i) Risk that the funds lent by the Issuer to the Group companies are not repaid: The Issuer is a finance vehicle established by the Guarantor for the purpose of issuing Notes and other financial instruments and on-lending the proceeds to the Guarantor and its consolidated subsidiaries (the "Group"). The Issuer is therefore dependent upon other members of the Group paying interest on and repaying their loans in a timely fashion. Should any Group member fail to pay interest on or repay any loan in a timely fashion this could have a material adverse effect on the ability of the Issuer to fulfil its obligations under Notes issued under the Programme which could have an adverse impact on the rights of noteholders and the return on their investment.

(ii) The Issuer's resolution risk: The Issuer could suffer losses if a resolution procedure were to be initiated or if the Group's financial situation were to deteriorate significantly.

The European banking crisis resolution framework has introduced a mechanism for the prevention and resolution of banking crises and has given the European resolution authorities, including the Single Resolution Board, very extensive powers to take any measure necessary for the resolution of all or part of a credit institution or the group to which it belongs. The Resolution Authority considers that the single entry point strategy is the most appropriate for the Group. Pursuant to this strategy, the Guarantor in its capacity as the central body and parent company of its subsidiaries, would be the single entry point in the event that the Group were to be wound up. In the event of implementation of a bank resolution procedure at the Group level, the guarantee provided by the Guarantor to the Issuer could be subject to such an internal bail-in and no longer cover all or part of the commitments of the Issuer. The Resolution Authority may also implement other resolution measures, in particular: the total or partial sale of the business of a relevant institution to a third party or a bridge institution, the separation of the assets of that institution and the modification of the terms and conditions of the financial instruments issued by that institution (including the modification of their maturity, the amount of interest payable and/or a temporary suspension of any payment obligation under such instruments).

3.3 What are the key risks that are specific to the Guarantor?

The most important risk factors that specifically affect the Issuer included in the Base Prospectus are as follows:

1. Macroeconomic risks

The deterioration in the geopolitical and macroeconomic environment could have a material adverse effect on the business of the Group. A strong and persistent deterioration in the macroeconomic outlook and a consequent increase in risk aversion by participants in the financial markets could adversely affect the Group's business. This type of shock could, for example, be the result of global geopolitical events, domestic political factors (such as territorial tensions, populist governments or social protests), an intense outbreak of any pandemic, or the emergence of geopolitical tensions (such as the ongoing armed conflict between Russia and Ukraine as explained below). The potential consequences of such a scenario include: an increase in the country risk premium (cost of financing), pressure on costs (due to inflation), a reduction in business volumes or a worsening of credit quality and deposit outflows.

The Group is particularly exposed to fluctuations in the macroeconomic situation in the Spanish, Portuguese and other European Union (EU) markets, including the impact of the recent rises in inflation and interest rates.

2. Credit risk

The Non-performing loans ("NPL") ratio closed the 2022 financial year at 2.10% for the Bankinter Group, i.e. 14 basis points less than the previous year, 6.25% lower than the previous year; while the NPL coverage ratio at the end of the 2022 financial year is 66.34%. The Group's non-performing loan ratio in Spain at 2022 year-end was 55% of the sector average (3.77% according to Bank of Spain data from October 2022).

At the end of 2022, total doubtful eligible exposures stood at EUR 1.734 million, up 41 million (+2.42%) from the year before, when they amounted to EUR 1.693 million. The risk under special surveillance was EUR 2,851 million (up EUR 741 million, or 35.17%, on the end of the previous year, EUR 2,109 million).

The volume of foreclosed assets at year-end 2021 amounted to EUR 122,8 million, which represents 0.15% of computable risk (EUR 82,426 million), and is down by EUR 47 million gross compared with the previous year.

3. Structural interest rate risk

The way interest rates behave is affected by numerous factors beyond the control of the Group, such as the regulation of the financial sector in the markets in which it operates, the monetary policies developed by the ECB, and the Spanish and international political and economic situation.

4. Capital adequacy risk.

Any breach by the Guarantor of the capital requirements could result in administrative penalties. The SREP requirement at the consolidated level requires the Group to maintain a minimum Common Equity Tier I ("CET1") ratio of 7.726% of risk-weighted assets ("RWAs") in 2023 (7.625% in 2021 and 7.726 in 2022) and a minimum Total Capital ratio of 11.79% of risk-weighted assets (11.70% in 2021 and 11.79% in 2022). The CET1 requirement consists of: the minimum CET1 ratio required by Pillar 1 (4.5%), the Pillar 2 requirement ("P2R") and the capital conservation buffer of 2.50%. These minimum ratios include a P2R capital requirement of 1.29% (0.726% is covered by CET1), of which 0.09% is determined on the basis of the ECB's prudential provisioning expectations.

5. Risk due to lack of liquidity. In the current economic setting, the Guarantor cannot guarantee that it will be able to meet its liquidity needs or to do so without incurring higher deposit costs or having to liquidate some of its assets in the event of pressure on its liquidity from any cause.

6. Risk from administrative, judicial and arbitration proceedings

Bankinter has received claims whose estimated obligations have been recognised at 31 December 2021 under "Other provisions" in Note 20 of the Group's notes to the consolidated financial statements.

At 31 December 2022, the Company considers that the provisions deemed necessary to cover possible losses associated with the multi-currency loan portfolio and to cover the outcome of the risks that could affect the Entity are adequately established, amounting to EUR 188.1 million.

Automatic Early Redemption Amount:

For the avoidance of doubt, for the purposes of any calculation by reference to the Calculation Amount on any day (i.e. also for calculation of the Automatic Early Redemption Amount for each Note), the Calculation Amount is the Original Calculation Amount minus the sum of the Instalment Amounts paid prior to the relevant day.

If an AER Automatic Early Redemption Event occurs on any Automatic Early Redemption Valuation Date, the Notes will be redeemed early on the immediately following Automatic Early Redemption Date at the Automatic Early Redemption Amount. The Automatic Early Redemption Amount payable per Calculation Amount is equal to the Calculation Amount multiplied by the AER percentage.

Status of the Notes: The Notes constitute direct, unconditional, unsubordinated and unsecured obligations of the Issuer and rank pari passu and rateably without any preference among the obligations of the Issuer in respect of other Notes of the same Series of the Issuer and (subject to any applicable statutory exceptions and without prejudice as aforesaid) at least pari passu with all other unsecured and unsubordinated indebtedness and monetary obligations of the Issuer, present and future.

Description of any restrictions on the free transferability of the Notes: The Notes will be transferable, subject to the offering, selling and transfer restrictions of the laws of each jurisdiction in which the Notes are offered or sold. Other than in Portugal, the Notes may not be offered, sold or otherwise made available to any retail investor in the United Kingdom.

4.2 IS THERE ANY GUARANTEE LINKED TO THE NOTES?

The guarantee in respect of the Notes (the "Guarantee") is an unsecured and unsubordinated preferred senior obligation of the Guarantor (crédito ordinario preferente). Subject to statutory preferences, the Guarantee will rank equally with any of the Guarantor's other unsecured and unsubordinated senior preferred indebtedness (créditos ordinarios preferentes). However, the Guarantee will be effectively subordinated to all of the Guarantor's secured indebtedness, to the extent of the value of the assets securing such indebtedness, and other preferential obligations under Spanish law including the covered deposits and natural persons and micro, small and medium enterprises deposits referred to in Additional Provisions 14 of Law 11/2015. The Guarantee is also structurally subordinated to all indebtedness of subsidiaries of the Guarantor insofar as any right of the Guarantor to receive any assets of such companies upon their winding-up will be effectively subordinated to the claims of the creditors of those companies in the winding-up.

The obligations of the Guarantor under the Guarantee are also subject to the application of the general bail-in tool by the relevant resolution authority pursuant to the Bank Recovery and Resolution Directive and Law 11/2015.

4.3 WHAT ARE THE KEY RISKS THAT ARE SPECIFIC TO THE SECURITIES

The most important risk factors for the Notes are as follows:

1. Risks in case of an insolvency or resolution measures in respect of the Issuer or the Guarantor: The Notes constitute unsecured obligations of the Issuer which are guaranteed by the Guarantor, the Issuer itself having not sufficient funds to pay for these obligations. The Notes will not be covered by any statutory or other deposit protection scheme. Therefore in the event of an insolvency of the Guarantor or the Issuer, an investor in the Notes may lose some or all of its investment therein irrespective of any favourable development of the other value determining factors, such as the performance of the Reference Items. Similarly, prior to an insolvency of the Guarantor, rights of the holders of the Notes may be adversely affected by the competent resolution authorities exercising their write down and conversion powers over the Notes and/or the Guarantee due to their inclusion in the Guarantor's or the Issuer's internal recapitalisation sequence (bail-in) if the Guarantor becomes subject to resolution proceedings under Directive (EU) 2014/59 and the implementing Spanish law acts.

The adoption of any restructuring or resolution measure on the Group may directly and substantially impact the management of the Issuer, the Guarantor and the Group, in its strategy, legal structure, composition and operation of its governing bodies and systems, capital adequacy level/financial capacity and level of financial resources available as well as in the rights of its creditors, shareholders and customers.

2. Investors in Notes are exposed to the performance of the Reference Items: Notes represent an investment linked to the performance of the Reference Items and potential investors should note that any amount payable, or other benefit to be received, under such Notes will generally depend upon the performance of the Reference Items.
3. Risk of loss or total loss: Notes are complex products that involve a high degree of risk. Prospective investors in Notes should recognise that, under certain circumstances, Notes may have a redemption value of zero and any payments of Interest Amounts scheduled to be made thereunder may not be made. Prospective investors in Notes should therefore be prepared to sustain a partial or total loss of the amount of their investment therein.
4. Liquidity risk/Secondary market risk: Although application will be made to admit the issued Notes to trading the official list of Euronext Dublin, this does not mean that such Notes will be any more or less liquid than if such Notes were not listed and there is not assurance that such application will be accepted.
